

Nyaradzo Digital legacy 102: Facebook

Facebook gives you the choice to delete/remove or memorialise a deceased's profile/account. One of these alternatives may have already been selected by the user, who may have designated a "legacy contact" to handle their profile after their death. Please note in the event a legacy contact has been nominated, only the legacy contact will be able to make a request to Facebook.

How to delete/remove a deceased's Facebook account

You will need to submit an online request and provide the following information:

- Your full name
- Your email address
- Full name on the deceased's Facebook account
- URL (link) for the deceased's Facebook account
- The email that was used to create the deceased's profile (if available)
- Copy of the death certificate. If you do not have a death certificate, copy or link for an obituary or death notice

In the event you do not have a death certificate you will need to provide proof that you are a direct family member or executor with one of the following documents:

- Birth certificate
- Power of attorney
- Last will and testament
- Estate letter
